RED WIGGLER
COMMUNITY FARM

This is a full-time, full-year position.

Shared Responsibilities:

- Building an inclusive community through leading small teams on farm tasks.
- Mentoring 3 - 5 program participants.
- Leading tours or workshops for neurodiverse groups.
- Maintaining a culture committed to safety and diversity.
- Participating in strategic planning.
- Designing adaptive operating procedures, and accomodating neurodivergent staff and volunteers.

Work Environment:

- This position is ~70% outdoors Spring, Summer, and Fall, and farm work is the basis of all our programs.
- Most of your work will be leading small teams of 6-12 individuals.
- Some days, you will work with or co-lead large teams up to 50 people.
- We pay for snack and lunch breaks because our days are full and busy; staff encourage and model self-care in this very athletic profession.
- In the off-season, we enjoy flexible schedules and take paid-time-off to reset and reenergize.

Unique Responsibilities:

You are the expert on vocational training for neurodivergent individuals in our programs.

- Setting appropriate individual vocational goals.
- Measuring achievement of vocational goals.
- Tracking skills development over time.

You are the expert on hosting educational tours of our farm.

- Adapting tours for all age groups and a wide range of neurodiversity.
- Scheduling and coordinating educational group visits and tour leaders.
- Deeply understanding all our programs in order to share our mission and vision with visitors.
- Coaching new leaders to provide engaging and educational tours.
- Hosting at least one major tour event reaching hundreds of community members.
- Reporting for our nonprofit programs in your areas of expertise.
